Prentice-ism.

Gen. Joe Lane, whilst preparing to join the Southern army, shot himself accidentally, but severely. We hope the old gentleman will recover, but if he felt he must shoot people, he made exactly the right beginning.

There is a dispute as to whether John Bell was drunk or not when he made his disunion speech. We don't know which side of the question the old gentleman himself takes.

A member of the confederate army in Virginia complains that he and his command "have been exposed day and night to the elements." We expect they were in want of a little elementary knowledge.

Extra Billy Smith of Virginia, says he "snuffs victory in the breeze." And Henry A. Wise snuffs victory in the breeze too. What would Virginia take for that pair of snuffers?

There was an evacuation at Harper's Ferry some days ago. There was a more serious one in Missouri a short time previous.

Whisky caused an insurrection in 1792; and a worse spirit than whisky has caused a worse insurrection in 1861.

Secession is exceedingly hot in most places, but it is said as cold as Spitzbergen in Kentucky.

A great many of our young men appear to be army mad—bitten by the army worm, we suppose.

The Charleston Mercury compares Gen. Scott to an old setting hen. We guess he'll lay secession.

One of Gov. Jackson's organs in Missouri says that it pities the U. S. troops. It seems that Gen. Price pitied them at the battle of Boonville. His bowels were moved for them.

We guess that Rich Mountain is a poor mountain in Jeff Davis' estimation.

The confederate troops staid several days on Laurel Hill, but gathered no laurels.

POOLESVILLE, [Md.] Sept. 24.—Late intelligence from the Virginia shore is to the effect that from opposite the White House Ford, near the mouth of Seneca river, down to Arlington Heights, the rebels have heavy pickets, and are daily expecting reinforcements, to extend to Conrad's Ferry. There are at least from 600 to 5,000 now along the line. Up to Friday a force of 1,000 Mississippians, as a guard, reached the vicinity of Fairfax Court House with six pieces of artillery.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 26.—The Mobile Register says that Bragg has been transferred to the Potomac from Pensacola, and is succeeded in command by Brigadier General H. H. Anderson of Richmond.

Advices received at Richmond state that one hundred and sixty-two Federal prisoners reached there yesterday afternoon. They were taken by Gen. Floyd, near Gauley Bridge, last week. One hundred of them belong to the Seventh Ohio. About 2,000 Federal prisoners are now there. The weather in the mountains is quite cool and winterlike. Clothing is absolutely needed by many of the soldiers.

An Engineer, just arrived at Richmond, says a serious accident occurred on the railroad near Abingdon, in which the Aiken Guards, of the Fourteenth Louisiana Regiment, had one killed and thirteen wounded.

The rebel Congress was in session about two hours on the 18th instant, and adjourned to the third Monday in November.

The Mountaineer says: "If those who are snivelling so loudly for 'peace' are earnest in their pretensions, they will go to their friends, the rebels, and use their influence to persuade them to retire from the hellish conflict they have inaugurated."

A letter from the U. S. steamer Ironsides, dated Aug. 14th, off Savannah, says: "The gunboat is at Charlestown, repairing damages to bowsprit, head, &c., caused by the Wabash running into her. The Wabash took her for the privateer Sumter, and was intending to run her down and sink her, but fortunately discovered her mistake in time to clear her, with the exception of the bowsprit, which she carried away."

An intelligent woman lately arrived in N. York from the South, says it is customary in Secessia for the land pirates to search travelers and relieve them of specie, giving in exchange confederate bonds and worthless bank notes.

In a late Old School Presbytery in San Francisco, a vote touching the duty of the clergy to declare themselves for loyalty as against rebellion, all the members voted in the affirmative except Dr. Scott. He said that Jeff Davis was no more a traitor than George Washington.

To Emigrants.
THOSE desiring to locate permanent homes, convenient to ship navigation, in the healthiest part of the world I have ever seen, and on the richest soil on the Pacific coast, will do well to examine the Chehalis River Valley, and the country north of Gray's Harbor, W. T., where will be found some very beautiful prairies, and the finest body of bottom land I ever saw in any country, backed by rich, well watered, and finely timbered upland. The river bottoms are lightly timbered, and easily cleared.
I surveyed a large portion of the country north of Gray's Harbor above alluded to, and do not hesitate to say that better locations for farming, lumbering and fishing can be found there than on any part of the Pacific coast, now unoccupied.
Gray's Harbor is the best entrance north of San Francisco, and south of the Straits of Fuca.

Rebels, says that the government policy will be changed towards this class of traitors—that the fact is now being realized by the administration—notwithstanding the general enthusiasm which prevails throughout our loyal States, and the unexampled liberality of our loyal people in furnishing men by hundreds of thousands and money by hundreds of millions—that there are seditious and traitorous peace organs and peace agitators among us, sowing the seeds of demoralization and discord, and that the generous forbearances of peace in the matter of individual liberty to speak, write, plot and conspire against the Government, cannot be safely tolerated under the stern necessities of this gigantic Southern rebellion.

Our authority continues—"It was impossible for the framers of the Constitution to provide for these necessities, for they never dreamed of such a crisis to our country as this—but the extraordinary demands of the crisis must be met, and with the restoration of the Union we shall be in a better condition for the full enjoyment of all our liberties under a reign of peace than ever we have been heretofore. Meantime, however in view of public harmony and official activity in the prosecution of this war, all false preachers of peace and teachers of secession standing in the way of the Government must expect to be removed."

The Future.

The N Y Herald says it will be a month or two before our generals everywhere, will be prepared to make forward movements.—These movements will be extensive and require a large naval force. The Herald says the war will be carried into Africa; that this will give our government the command of the cotton crop and will "bring at once the cotton confederates of the South and the cotton cabinet of England to the recognition of the fact that King cotton must submit to the laws of our Union." The Herald thus closes on this subject

There is no necessity for hurrying up this plan or any other plan of military operations against the rebels. Time will strengthen, discipline, harmonize and give confidence to our army, while it is apparent that delay will weaken and demoralize the enemy. For the present a rigid blockade by land and sea is the most effective instrumentality of war that can be used against the armies of Davis. Let General McClellan be prepared, however, for the contingency of an attack upon any part of his defensive line of the Potomac, and let the Cabinet and the Generals of our army made their preparations for a grand combined forward movement in October or November by land and sea, and we are confident that the wholesome lessons of our late reverses will be redeemed in the final overthrow of this rebellion by the month of May.

will not be without instruction to the people of the South—and proceeds

"We fear no longer the ultimate fate of the Union. We feel full confidence that it will be preserved, and be henceforth stronger and more beloved than ever. The South will come to know the North better and entertain for it a much higher esteem. It will learn that all the chivalry of the Union is not confined to the slaveholding States. It will find that if the people of the North are an industrious business people, if they are principled against duels, loth to believe in the necessity of war, and slow to engage in a fight, it is from no lack of the sense of honor, from no deficiency of courage, or want of pluck. It will learn, we doubt not, that the people of the free States though they can bear much, are not all enduring, that with them even there is a point where forbearance ceases to be a virtue, and that they can give as well as receive blows. It will learn perhaps to its cost that there is as much high spirit, gentlemanly feeling, chivalric sentiment and noble daring among our farmers, mechanics, merchants, shop-keepers and cotton spinners, as among the slave owners, nigger drivers and clay eaters. It will learn that our estimate of its character has been founded on ignorance and prejudice and when the federal armies have defended the government, defeated and annihilated the rebellious forces arrayed against it, and caused once more its time honored flag to float in the breeze from the capitol of every State in the Union, it will feel that we are not only fit foemen, but a people that they may feel proud to own, love and respect as as their friends and countrymen. Far be it from us to undervalue the fine qualities of the Southern people, their frankness, their spirit, their generous and elegant hospitality but they will be taught before the end of this war that the freemen of the North have equalities in no sense inferior, and which when known, will probably prove equally attractive."

From the Upper Columbia

The Mountaineer of Wednesday says that be emigrants are coming in. Seven wagons with a party from Illinois, were to leave on Thursday's boat for this valley. On Ten Mile Creek, there was a large emigrant camp, with fine stock; and there was a great number of emigrants on the way down, this side of Walla Walla. The Mountaineer says—"Those of the emigrants we have seen represent the trip across the continent as unaided with difficulty and partaking of the character of a pleasure excursion."

The Mountaineer gives some interesting items of news. Some fifteen emigrant families have stopped in the Grande Ronde Valley, for the purpose of making a permanent settlement. Twenty three names have been enrolled in the volunteer company of cavalry at the Dalles. Capt. Myers, quartermaster at the Dalles, has been ordered to report at the head quarters of the army. Lt. Adair takes his place. Capt Whittlesey is now in command at the Dalles.

places has threatened with attack from Secessionists, but immediately ordered reinforcements either from St. Joseph, and there are now troops enough in Kansas City to protect it against any attacks that may be made.—Jefferson City is looked upon by Ben McCulloch and Jackson as a desirable point, but Fremont has sent 8,000 troops for the protection of that place, and it is thought to be safe. My own opinion is that an attack will be made by the rebels soon, upon either Rolla or Jefferson City. The rebel forces have been considerably increased of late, and they will no doubt give the Union troops a great deal of trouble. It is reported that a regular reign of terror exists in Arkansas in the large slave holding counties for the rebel service. McCulloch's army has created devastation all through the Southwest, and Union people have been obliged to leave everything behind and flee for their lives. Large numbers have gone into Illinois and Indiana.

CITY.

The steamer Express will run as follows, during the Fair, on the 1st, 2d, 3d, and 4th of October: Leave Portland each day at half-past seven, A. M., and one P. M.; leave Oregon City each day at nine A. M., and four P. M.

Tuesday last was observed in this city in pursuance of the recommendation of the President, as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer. Services were held in all the Churches, and in the Jewish Synagogue. We can say with truth that our people seemed to unite most cordially and devoutly in the duties of the day. We listened to the sermon of Rev. Mr. Chamberlain with deep interest; it was not fanatic, to the point—not a line would we have crossed, not a word would we have changed.

Rev. Mr. Pearne, by request, will repeat his sermon on the duty of the American people to support their Government, in the M. E. Church, on to-morrow in the forenoon. The sermon has been highly spoken of.

SAILED.—The steamer Cortes sailed from the mouth of the Willamette river, where she had been detained to receive some government freight, on Thursday night, at 10 o'clk EXCURSION.—The Rev. Father Mackin took the little boys which are under his charge at the School of the Sisters of Charity, recently, on an excursion, a mile across the river,—where the little fellows were well supplied, with apples by Mr. Sullivan, whose place they passed.

LATE TRIP.—The Carrie Ladd made an extra trip on Thursday last to the Cascades, taking down some emigrants, who had been waiting there some days.

DRY.—From the appearance of the atmosphere for the last 48 hours, it would seem as if the yearly equinoctial rains had visited us.

LITTLE BLAST.—Mr. G. C. Robbins, jeweler, on Front street, is now prepared to do all kinds of work in his line of business. Mr. Robbins is well known in Oregon as a splendid workman, and his work is all warranted; also his success. The Assay Office in this establishment is under the management of Mr. Ogden, who comes among us well recommended from California. See advertisement.

THEATRE.—An excellent programme is billed for to-night, at the Willamette Theatre. The "Singing Hyena," "Toodles," and "Bombastes Furioso," will be presented by the Robinson Family, with singing and dancing. The Seguins sings as charming as ever. This is their night, and we hope they will be greeted with a full house.

GOLD DUST.—The Carrie Ladd brought down last night, in Tracy's Express, $20,000 in gold dust, also about $12,000 in private hands.

DEATH OF A CATHOLIC PRIEST.—Rev. Father Scullard, a young Catholic priest, died at Vancouver on Friday of last week. He was visiting himself to become a missionary among the Indians. He was consigned to his long place under the imposing rites of the Catholic ritual.

The Vancouver Chronicle says that Mr. J. Strong, brother of Hon. Wm. Strong, and formerly Clerk of that Judicial District, has been killed in battle. He was commander of a company of New York volunteers at the time of his death.

The Vancouver Chronicle understands that [illegible] worth of the Oregon S. N. Co., is now in the upper country for the purpose of making arrangements to have a semi-weekly communication with Walla Walla.

There is said to be good reasons for believing that a majority of the inhabitants of the eastern part of Virginia, are opposed to the present rebellion, and are only kept down by the military force at present encamped in that vicinity.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Record is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical study of this art in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully acquitted him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary academician degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary Army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of the profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's office is at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in correspondence, please inclose $5 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june25d&wly
